

Watch & Pray

Puppet pops up, disrupting the service, unexpectedly.

Puppet: I'm watching; I'm watching; I'm watching!

Leader : What in the world? Why are you being so disruptive?

Puppet: I'm watching! You know it, uh huh uh huh!

Leader: What are you watching?

Puppet: Jesus told us to watch. I saw it this morning when you put your notes down on the desk. It was the Bible verse.

Leader: Yes, in Mark 14:38, Jesus did tell us to watch. Jesus told us to watch and to pray, but He did not tell us to be disruptive.

Puppet: I just wanted you to know that I was watching

Leader: What are you watching?

Puppet: I was watching you.

Leader: Mark 14:38 does not say anything about watching me.

Puppet: What am I supposed to watch?

Leader: You are supposed to watch out for the enemy so you don't fall into temptation.

Puppet: The enemy? What enemy? Where?

Leader: The devil is the enemy and he wants to tempt us to sin.

Puppet: Sin is bad and God hates it!

Leader: That's right, and the devil wants us to sin so he can destroy our relationship with God.

Puppet: That no good rotten devil.

Watch & Pray

Leader: That is why it is so important to know what God's Word says. God's Word and prayer are weapons that destroy the plans of the devil.

Puppet: Well... let's learn that bible verse then, and get some ammo.

Leader : OK! Boys and girls, repeat after me

Puppet: How about me?

Leader: You repeat after me too.

Puppet: If I am repeating after you, then who is repeating after me.

Leader: If it makes you feel better, everybody can repeat after you

Puppet: How exciting! Everybody remember to repeat after me. Wait a minute, then who is going to repeat after the kids. Let's make it fair!

Leader: If it makes you feel better, you can repeat after them too, as long as we get to it.

Puppet: OK, let's get to it!

Leader: Mark 14:38

Puppet: Mark 14:38! Mark 14:38! Mark 14:38! Repeat after me everybody, Mark 14:38!

Kids: Mark 14:38

Puppet: Mark 14:38! Mark 14:38!

Leader: Watch and pray

Puppet: Watch and pray

Kids: Watch and pray

Puppet: Watch and Pray
